Y5/6 Homework

We have looked at the Tudor family tree. Can you make your own family tree with at least 3 generations?

Henry VIII changed lots of laws and made new rules whilst he was in charge of England. What laws or rules would you change? Give reasons for your ideas. Create a list or a persuasive poster.

This portrait of Elizabeth I contains lots of symbolism – there are many clues about what she was like as a queen. Can you paint or draw a portrait of someone in your family? What objects or symbols could be included to help show the person's character?

Optional homework tasks

You can choose to complete any of the optional homework tasks outlined on this sheet.

Make sketches of Tudor clothing for children and adults, rich and poor. Use websites and books from your library to find out about their garments.

Write a diary entry from the point of view of one of Henry's wives. Choose which important moment in her life the diary entry is about.

Research a Tudor instrument. Find out how it works and how it is played. Make a model of the instrument or invent your own.

List what you think you would have liked and disliked about living in Tudor times.
Decide first if you are thinking from a rich or poor person's perspective.
